

Australian Paediatric Surveillance Unit 1993 - 2018

Celebrating 25 years of research, advocacy and care for children living with rare conditions

Sunday 13th of May 2018

Charles Perkins Centre Lecture Theatre,
The University of Sydney

9:00 – 9:30 Coffee and registration

Session 1

Professor Carol Bower Welcome

Professor Elizabeth Elliott Celebrating 25 years of achievements for the APSU

A/Professor Yvonne Zurynski Living with a rare disease – experiences of families and clinicians

Mr Steve Waugh Meeting the needs of children living with rare disease and their families

Dr Sloane Madden Early onset eating disorders in young children – role of surveillance to support policy and care

11:00 – 11:30 Morning tea

Session 2

Dr Marcel Zimmet Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder – from surveillance to policy

Professor Elizabeth Elliott Female Genital Mutilation – do Paediatricians see this rare injury?

Professor Heather Jeffery Sudden Unexplained Death in Australian Infants

Professor Helen Leonard Rett Syndrome: From surveillance to genotype-phenotype characterisation

12:30 – 13:30 Lunch and awards presentation

Session 3

Professor Cheryl Jones Consequences of congenital infection: HSV, Rubella, Varicella, HIV, cCMV & Zika

Dr Anne Durkan Long-term outcomes after atypical HUS

A/Professor Julia Brotherton Juvenile Onset Respiratory Papillomatosis

Professor Robert Booy Severe influenza in Australian children

Dr Philip Britton Encephalitis Study

15:00-16:00 Wrap up – Wine and cheese

A satellite meeting of the Royal Australasian College of Physicians Congress 14th – 16th May